

Evolution Healthcare Systems

Test Data Policy

All data used for testing and demonstration purposes is fictional any resemblance to any persons is purely coincidental and not designed to represent any individual or cause embarrassment.

No data received from a third party will be used.

No Patient identifiable information should be sent to Evolution Healthcare Systems. Any patient identifiable information received in error will be instantly deleted and the sender notified.

Screenshots received by Evolution Healthcare Systems to demonstrate any issues encountered should have had the patient identifiable contents deleted.

Images displayed in our screenshots and help system are non identifiable stock images.

No patient images should be sent to Evolution Healthcare Systems. Any images sent will be deleted and the sender informed.